

HOP 2002 to 2007

- 2002
- Census levels off at 3700 active patients
 - LSU Board of Regents awarded tobacco settlement money to study/improve infrastructure for the Maternal/Child Program
 - Reach Out and Read Program added to HOP Pediatric Clinic

- 2003
- Lab Tracker, a database and electronic document management and reporting system introduced at HOP
 - Joined HRSA's HIVQUAL Program
 - HOP opens an on-site clinic at Orleans Parish Prison
 - HOP clinicians meet with Magic Johnson
 - Charity's Walk-in clinic closes
 - CDC funded ASD project ends
 - Health education community outreach activities start by going out to schools, churches, prisons and health fairs

- Harm Reduction support group starts
- Addiction support group starts

- 2004
- Census is 3400 active patients, with 44 new patients per month
 - Tree of Hope dedication at Charity Hospital
 - Physicians begin dictating progress Notes into LSU's Health Care Services Division Program's Clinical Inquiry System (CLIQ), now progress notes are available electronically
 - Telemedicine restarted at state prisons for consultative HIV care
 - Harm Reduction, Women's, Mental Health, Addiction, and Palliative Care support groups available to HOP patients
 - "One-stop shop" with on-site subspecialty, mental health and dental services on site continue

- 2005
- August 29, 2005 – Hurricane Katrina hit the gulf coast and flooded the city of New Orleans and HOP. What follows is the story of how we came back...
 - C-HOP – Charity HOP clinic RNs and MDs see New Orleans patients at EKL's HIV clinic in Baton Rouge beginning 9/22/05 – with an initial census of 280
 - HOP staff saw patients at University Medical Center's HIV clinic in Lafayette with an initial census of 80
 - HOP RNs and MDs see patients in various community clinics
 - HOP and OPH staff fill ADAP medications at Chabert
 - Ryan White medications are supplied via agreements
 - HOP MD/NP team provides on-site Care to HIV-infected prisoners at Dixon and Hunt Correctional Institutions
 - MCLNO opens HIV Primary Care and Medicine Clinics in the Hutchinson Building across the street from Charity on 11/7/05
 - "Voices of the Storm" – Kaiser Family Foundation publishes perspectives on health care after the storm, HOP patients profiled

2006

Post

Katrina

- HOP secures assistance from Direct Relief International for the reestablishment of HIV services in the city
- Clinic resumes services at S. Roman Street building in April 2006
- Research studies resume
- Dental services resume on-site in November, 2006
- HOP Hep C clinic reopens and begins accepting mono-infected patients awaiting resumption of Hepatology clinics
- HOP is awarded HRSA SPNS (Special Projects of National Significance) funds for a mobile dental unit to provide oral healthcare to HIV and non-HIV communities
- HOP receives first Ryan White Title IV grant funding from FACES (Children's Hospital)
- Regained KidMed provider status
- HIV prison telemedicine clinics reestablish (2/15/07)
- Clinic staff was featured on WDSU's "Hot Seat"
- Staffing dropped by two-thirds following storm, but by May 2007 half had returned to HOP

2007

In the Big Picture

- HIV is leading cause of death worldwide among those between the ages of 15 and 59
- Women comprise about half of all adults living with HIV/AIDS worldwide
- FDA approves OraQuick Rapid HIV-1 Antibody Test, the first to use a finger prick and available for use outside of laboratories

- More than two-thirds of new infections result from transmission by an individual unaware of their HIV status, according to the CDC
- FDA approves Fuzeon (enfuvirtide) a new class of HIV treatment medications called fusion inhibitors
- FDA approves Reyataz (atazanavir)
- FDA approves Emtriva (emtricitabine)
- FDA approves Lexiva (fosamprenavir)

- 95% of PLWH live in developing countries
- FDA approves Epzicom (abacavir/lamivudine)
- FDA approves Truvada (tenofovir/emtricitabine)
- Generic formulation of Videx (didanosine) is released

- AZT patent expires, paving the way for the FDA to approve generic versions at lower cost
- Generic formulation of Epivir (lamivudine) gains "tentative" approval from the FDA
- FDA approves Aptivus (tipranavir)
- Congress reauthorizes the Ryan White CARE Act
- FDA approves Atripla (tenofovir/emtricitabine/efavirenz), the first single pill, once a day AIDS treatment option
- FDA approves Prestiza (darunavir)